S.States Has Dollar Increase

Southern States Cooperative's dollar volume, exclusive of petroleum marketing, for the first six months of the 1970-71 fiscal year showed a 12% increase over the same period last year.

Net savings for the period reached $1,590,000, up $691,000 over last year.

This information was contained in a report presented by J.D. Tolbert, of Richmond, a regional agromony supervisor of the cooperative, to members at a regional board meeting held in Farmville, Va. on Feb. 11.

Mr. Tolbert told the session that volume for the organization not including grain marketing, stood at $63,200,000 for the first half of the fiscal year as compared to $56,300,000 a year ago.

Feed volume for the six months period was 243,000 tons, up slightly over last year.

Fertilizer tonnage stood at 150,000 tons, as compared with 133,000 tons for the previous year.

Seed volume was $2,600,000, up slightly over last year.

Miscellaneous farm supply volume reached $14,800,000, up $1,500,000 over the same period last year.

Petroleum volume for the first six months was about 59,-900,000 gallons, up about 2,-000,000 gallons.

Volume for Southern States Grain Marketing Cooperative for the first six months was 7,910,000 bushels, about the same as last year. While more corn was marketed than the previous year, soybean marketing suffered because of short crops due to extreme dry weather.

Public Invited To Anniversary

An overflow crowd attended the twentieth anniversary of the Pamplin Community Men's Club last Sunday evening at 2:30. The Rev. James Franklin, Jr. served as master of ceremony and was chairman of the program committee. The special guest was Rev. S. C. Terry, and his Sr. Choir and Men's chorus of the First Buffalo Baptist Church of Halifax County. Rev. Terry was the guest speaker. He spoke from the subject: "The Missing Man". The following program was presented: Opening selection. Guest choir; scripture reading, Rev. H. O. Flood; Prayer, Rev. R. Q. Lawing; Music, special selection by the Men's chorus. The offering was lifted by visiting deacons and the president of the club, deacon Franklin. Closing remarks were given by Rev. Lawing. The benediction was given by the guest ministers. A total of $206.00 was reported for the total offering.

the former Miss Nancy Ellen Tyree

Tyree-Quick Wedding

The marriage of Miss Nancy Ellen Tyree, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Roy Tyree of Spout Spring, to Johnnie Ronald Quick, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Quick of Panama City, Florida took place Friday evening February 5 at 7:00 o'clock in Reedy Springs Baptist Church.

The Rev. David E. Brooks officiated at the double ring ceremony. A program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Joyce Vaughan, organist and Mr. Franklin Hall, soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white peau de soie designed with bell type sleeves and Mandarin collar. Her veil of illusion and lace was attached to a satin crown and draped to a cathedral train. She carried an orchid on a white prayer book.

Mrs. Thomas Torrence (Bonnie), sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. Other attendants were Mrs. Larry Moore (Linda), cousin of the bridegroom, Miss Lois Torrence, cousin of the bride and Miss Janice Doss, all of Appomattox.

Junior bridesmaids were Alice Faye Franklin, sister of the bridegroom and Janet Booth, cousin of the bride, both of Appomattox.

Tammy Ferguson, cousin of the bridegroom was flower girl, escorted by Rodney Bryant, cousin of the bridegroom. Both are of Appomattox.

The attendants wore gowns of mint green satin with front panel of green and white lace. They carried cascades of yellow mums with ribbon to contrast with their gowns. The Junior bridesmaids and flower girl wore gowns similar to those of the other attendants.

Thomas Torrence, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer. Dickie Beale, cousin of the bridegroom was train bearer.

Mr. Franklin was his son's best man. Groomsmen were Thomas C. Torrence, brother of the bride; Kenneth Franklin, brother of the bridegroom; Raymon Bryant, cousin of the bridegroom; all of Appomattox and Paul Bryant of Amherst, cousin of the bridegroom.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Ralph Reynolds, soloist and Miss Karen Marshall, organist.

The bride's mother wore a dress of beige with matching accessories and a corsage of yellow carnations.

The bridegroom's mother wore a mint green dress and coat to match with matching accessories. Her flowers were yellow carnations.

Miss Wanda Ferguson, cousin of the bridegroom, was in charge of the register for the wedding. Her gown was of mint green and she wore a corsage of white carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained at a reception in the social hall of the church.

The bride is a student at Appomattox County High School.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Appomattox High School and is employed by Babcock and Wilcon.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will live in Appomattox.

MR. AND MRS. JAMES W. FRANKLIN, JR.

Wed In Double Ring Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Neville Dawn Torrence, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lankford Torrence of Appomattox, to James Wilson Franklin, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Franklin, also of Appomattox, took place Friday, the 19th of February at seven thirty o'clock at New Hope Baptist Church, Vera.

The Reverend O. L. Burnette officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white peau de soie designed with bell type sleeves and Mandarin collar. Her veil of illusion and lace was attached to a satin crown and draped to a cathedral train. She carried an orchid on a white prayer book.

Mrs. Thomas Torrence (Bonnie), sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. Other attendants were Mrs. Larry Moore (Linda), cousin of the bridegroom, Miss Lois Torrence, cousin of the bride and Miss Janice Doss, all of Appomattox.

Rehearsal Party

An after-rehearsal party was held Thursday evening, Feb. 18, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Franklin, Vera, to honor their son and his bride-to-be, Miss Neville Dawn Torrence and Mr. James Wilson Franklin, Jr. Their marriage was an event on Friday, Feb. 19, at New Hope Baptist Church.

A spring bridal theme was used by the host and hostess, with the refreshment table covered with a mint green cloth and centered with an arrangement of yellow flowers.

Serving plates and accessories continued the green and yellow theme as guests enjoyed party sandwiches, cakes and soft drinks.

Those attending included the bridal party, relatives and friends of the young couple.

Mrs. Carlton Garrett and several aunts of the groom assisted with party preparations and serving.

We call it the "long-gallon latex" because it goes so much further. One coat covers virtually any wall and hides most surface imperfections. Needs no primer. Dripless. Leaves no lap marks. Stretch your dollars and paint less often — with the latex that just goes on and on and on . . .

MRS. BILLY CLAYTON TERRY
the former Miss Rita Kay Bryant

Terry-Bryant Marriage Rites Take Place In Appomattox

The wedding of Miss Rita Kay Bryant and Billy Clayton Terry took place Sunday evening, Feb. 14, at 3:00 o'clock in Appomattox Pentecostal Holiness Church.

The bride is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Oscar Bryant of Appomattox, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Terry of Portsmouth.

The Rev. Oscar Bryant and the Rev. Ronnie Moore officiated at the double ring ceremony. A program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Helen Talbert, pianist, and the Rev. Lanson Gentry, soloists.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a traditional wedding gown of silk organza fashioned with an empire molded bodice featuring rounded neckline and short sleeves trimmed with motifs of chantilly lace and seed pearls. Scalloped lace bordered the A-line skirt and the caged back which featured a square Watteau train. Her bouffant veil of imported silk illusion was held by a head piece of lace petals embroidered in seed pearls accented by crystal drops. She carried a prayer book with a bouquet of stephanotis, centered with an orchid.

Miss Janice Bryant, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a princess line dress of blue and green brocade and matching bowed headpiece. She carried a long-stem white mum with ribbon streamers.

Bobby Hartman of Portsmouth, was the groom's best man. Ushers were Tommy Moore of Gladstone, cousin of the bride, and Freddy House, of Portsmouth.

Following the ceremony, Mrs. Carolyn Reaves, Mrs. Peggy Moore, cousins of the bride, and Mrs. Nannie Mae Smith and Mrs. Janice McCormick were hostesses for a reception in the social hall of the church.

The bride is a graduate of Appomattox High School and attended Holmes Theological Seminary for one year. She is now employed at Wilbun's Grocery.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Craddock High School in Portsmouth and attended Holmes Theological Seminary. The groom is now employed with the bride's father.

After a southern wedding trip the couple will live in Appomattox.
